The Iowa State University Extension family finance specialists are now providing one-on-one financial counseling. The service is being promoted state wide. If your office receives a call from someone needing financial counseling, and you wish to pass them on to me, please email me with their contact information and a brief description of any information they may have shared with you. I have provided links to PR materials. Please push it far and wide...Face Book...Web Pages, etc.

If you have any questions, please call me.

For resources to use during the COVID-19 outbreak, please visit our Finding Answers Now page (www.extension.iastate.edu/humansciences/disaster-recovery).
